Synopsis

Mairi Campbell: Auld Lang Syne is the story of Scotland's most famous song and the life of one of the nation's most celebrated musicians.

It follows her acclaimed first solo theatre show Pulse by taking audiences on a new adventure including singing for US President Bill Clinton, a starring role in Sex and the City and a reinterpretation of the Robert Burns classic that changed her life.

Blending storytelling, dance with new music composed with David Gray, Mairi Campbell: Auld Lang Syne explores the meaning of one of the world's most famous songs. Delivered with her trademark wit, gentle charm and unparalleled musical ability, this funny and heartfelt show resonates with wider universal truths. After studying classical viola at the Guildhall School of Music, Mairi has become an established member of Scotland's traditional music scene, pushing the boundaries with her soundings and use of free improvisation. An interpreter of Scots song, with David Francis, Mairi has contributed a significant number of songs to its current canon. She is a regular collaborator, playing with the Occasionals, a Scottish dance band, Mr. McFalls Chamber, Concerto Caledonia.

She has received six Scots Trad Music Awards including the Inspiration Award in 2018 and has been inducted into the Hand Up for Trad 2019 Hall of Fame.
