Synopsis

Award winning musician Mairi Campbell presents Pulse, her one-woman music theatre show, co-devised and directed by Kath Burlinson.

Blending viola, voice, movement, animation and storytelling, Pulse weaves together Campbell's own coming-of-age story, where profound encounters with music and love change the course of her life. It tells the true story of how she finally found her musical 'pulse'. After frustrating and funny detours to music college and Mexican orchestras, Campbell makes a visit to Cape Breton which sends her home with a spring in her step.

With original music by Mairi Campbell and sound designer Dave Gray.

Pulse is a multi-artform production. Text content is around 50% which can be translated to other languages through subtitles as required and it has been successfully presented to non-English speaking audiences.

Pulse has been supported by Creative Scotland; premièred in Celtic Connections Festival and was part of the Made in Scotland showcase 2016.

Mairi Campbell is a pioneering Scottish musician whose work is rooted in and draws from her personal stories and cultural concerns.

After studying classical viola at the Guildhall School of Music, Mairi has become an established member of Scotland's traditional music scene, pushing the boundaries with her soundings and use of free improvisation. An interpreter of Scots song, with David Francis, Mairi has contributed a significant number of songs to its current canon. She is a regular collaborator, playing with the Occasionals, a Scottish dance band, Mr. McFalls Chamber, Concerto Caledonia. Since 2007 Mairi has led music retreats on the island of Lismore. www.lismoremusicretreats.com

She has received six Scots Trad Music Awards including the Inspiration Award in 2018 and has been inducted into the Hand Up for Trad 2019 Hall of Fame. She received the Live Ireland Music Awards for Best Female Musician of the Year and Best Composition of the Year. Mairi's version of Auld Lang Syne, with David Francis, was used in the pivotal New Year's Eve scene of the film Sex and the City.

Kath Burlinson is a theatre maker specialising in devised/ensemble work. In 2009 Kath founded the Authentic Artist Collective, whose productions include Wolf (text by Iain Finlay Macleod, Escalator East to Edinburgh). Other directing credits include Stolen Voices, developed at the National Theatre Studio London, (Tête à Tête festival, Arcola and Grimeborn), Unbroken Line (Ovalhouse), Emily: the making of a militant suffragette (Cambridge Devised Theatre/Production Exchange UK tour). Kath was director/dramaturg on Mairi Campbell's earlier shows with David Francis, 'The Red Earth' and Revival!' www.authenticartist.co.uk

David Gray runs the Sound Café Studio, working with artists in the fields of jazz, folk, rock and experimental music across the spectrum of drama, radio and television. He has collaborated with the Beta Band's Robin Jones and Lemon Jelly's Fred Deakin on critically acclaimed Roman Nose and Flashman album projects and in screenplay writer Tim Barrow's latest road movie. He has been working with Mairi Campbell since 2012 and their writing and production partnership has resulted in the music for Pulse and Auld Lang Syne.

Claire Lamond is a stop motion animator based in Edinburgh. She is drawn to small, personal stories that reflect a wider society and often weaves tales together with thread and textiles. Her films have screened at festivals around the world and have received three BAFTA Scotland nominations. She collaborates with museums, musicians and other artists, has illustrated album covers and runs animation workshops in schools and prisons. www.clairelamond.com

Tim Vincent-Smith works where sound meets shape. For Pulse he travelled to Lismore for the materials to make the kinetic sculpture. Tim formed the Shàmhach Quartet with Atzi Muramatzu, Kate Young and Mairi, an improvised string quartet rooted in diverse traditions. Other work in sound can be found at theplughole.org, virtual home of Tim's trio Sink. Sculptural work can be found at nook.org.uk. He also created The Pianodrome a pop-up theatre made from 25 junked pianos.
