Synopsis

Mairi Campbell: Auld Lang Syne

Mairi's adventures with Scotland's most famous song.

Delivered with her trademark wit and unparalleled musical ability, this funny and heartfelt show resonates with wider universal truths. Audiences will learn more about the song and its history; recognise negotiating the politics of childhood friendships; the challenges of romantic relationships and the highs and lows of success and failure.

Blending storytelling, animation and movement with new music composed with David Gray and Mairi Campbell this five-star show brings Scotland's most famous song to life.

Co-devised and directed by Kath Burlinson

Mairi Campbell: Auld Lang Syne was part of the Made in Scotland showcase 2018.

Mairi Campbell is a pioneering Scottish musician whose work is rooted in and draws from her personal stories and cultural concerns.

After studying classical viola at the Guildhall School of Music, Mairi has become an established member of Scotland's traditional music scene, pushing the boundaries with her soundings and use of free improvisation. An interpreter of Scots song, with David Francis, Mairi has contributed a significant number of songs to its current canon. She is a regular collaborator, playing with the Occasionals, a Scottish dance band, Mr. McFalls Chamber, Concerto Caledonia.

She has received six Scots Trad Music Awards including the Inspiration Award in 2018 and has been inducted into the Hand Up for Trad 2019 Hall of Fame. She received the Live Ireland Music Awards for Best Female Musician of the Year and Best Composition of the Year. Mairi's version of Auld Lang Syne, with David Francis, was used in the pivotal New Year's Eve scene of the film Sex and the City.

Kath Burlinson directed and co-devised Mairi Campbell: Pulse and was director/dramaturg on Mairi's earlier shows with David Francis: The Red Earth and Revival! Kath is the founder of the Authentic Artist Collective, whose productions include Wolf (text by Iain Finlay Macleod, Escalator East to Edinburgh), Tender Age (Theatre Royal Bury St Edmunds) and InVisible Lines. Other directing credits include Stolen Voices, developed at the National Theatre Studio London, (Tête à Tête festival, Arcola and Grimeborn), Unbroken Line (Ovalhouse), Emily: the making of a militant suffragette (Cambridge Devised Theatre/Production Exchange) and Hallaig (Robhanis Theatre Company).

Dave Gray runs the Sound Café Studio, working with artists in the fields of jazz, folk, rock and experimental music across the spectrum of drama, radio and television. He has collaborated with the Beta Band's Robin Jones and Lemon Jelly's Fred Deakin on critically acclaimed Roman Nose and Flashman album projects and in screenplay writer Tim Barrow's latest road movie. He has been working with Mairi Campbell since 2012 and their writing and production partnership has resulted in the music for Pulse and Auld Lang Syne.

Claire Lamond is a stop motion animator based in Edinburgh. She is drawn to small, personal stories that reflect a wider society and often weaves tales together with thread and textiles. Her films have screened at festivals around the world and have received three BAFTA Scotland nominations. She collaborates with museums, musicians and other artists, has illustrated album covers and runs animation workshops in schools and prisons. www.clairelamond.com

Maria McDonald has worked as Designer and Lighting Designer for companies including Theatre Alba, Theatre Objektiv, Elements World Theatre, Rapture Theatre, Strange Town and many more. She is resident Technician and Designer at the Netherbow Theatre, Scottish Storytelling Centre in Edinburgh.

David Francis is a guitarist and songwriter. As one half of The Cast (with Mairi Campbell) he produced 6 albums. He is a dance-caller and storyteller, Associate Director of TRACS (Traditional Arts and Culture Scotland) and Director of Scotland's Traditional Music Forum. He co-produces Distil, a long-running, creative development project for traditional musicians and is completing a Masters in Ethnology and Folklore at Aberdeen University.
